Biography

Elizabeth Wiesman is a litigation attorney who combines academic achievement with a passion for advocacy and client service. She works with individuals and businesses in a variety of civil matters, bringing a thoughtful approach to helping clients navigate complex legal challenges.

Raised in Appleton, Wisconsin, Elizabeth earned her undergraduate degree from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse before attending the University of Iowa College of Law, where she distinguished herself as one of the law school's top graduates. She was awarded the prestigious Charles M. and Marion J. Kierscht Full-Tuition Merit Scholarship and earned membership in the Order of the Coif. During law school, Elizabeth received numerous honors, including the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA) Outstanding Trial Advocate Award, the Dean's Award for Academic Excellence, the Faculty Award for Academic Excellence, and the Jurisprudence Award for Academic Excellence.

Prior to law school, Elizabeth worked in education in Onalaska, Wisconsin, supporting students with disabilities and behavioral challenges. That experience sparked her interest in advocacy and strengthened her desire to pursue a career focused on helping others navigate difficult circumstances.
